EASLEY APPOINTS MEMBERS TO COMMISSION ON THE BLIND

Please note Terry A. Wethington is retired from Cherry Point.

RALEIGH – Gov. Mike Easley appointed four members to the North Carolina Commission on the Blind.

Easley appointed Terry A. Wethington of New Bern, who is retired from Cherry Point, and Tom Winton of Raleigh, the visual impairment and assistive consultant for the Department of Public Instruction.

Easley reappointed John T. Miller III of Kitty Hawk, a construction contractor, and Mary Le O'Daniel of Charlotte, a social worker for Metrolina Association for the Blind.

The North Carolina Commission for the Blind adopts rules that are required by the federal government for grants-in-aid for rehabilitative purposes for the blind, which are available to the state from the federal government. The commission has 13 members, and the Governor appoints all 13 members. Each member serves a three-year term.
